IT IS ORDERED that in each case:

1. Rule 26(a) Initial Disclosures. The parties shall make their initial written disclosures pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a) on or before May 4, 2005.
2. Joinder of Other Parties and Amendment of Pleadings. All motions to join other parties and amend the pleadings shall be filed on or before June 14, 2005.
3. Reliance Upon Advice of Counsel. Defendants shall inform Telcordia whether they intend to rely upon advice of counsel as a defense to willful infringement no later than 14 days after the Court enters its claim construction order. If any Defendant elects to rely on advice of counsel as a defense to willful infringement, that Defendant shall produce any such opinions on which that Defendant intends to rely to Telcordia by no later than 14 days after the Court enters its claim construction order. If any Defendant elects to rely on advice of counsel as a defense to willful infringement, Telcordia may take discovery relating solely to that advice of counsel after such election. All such discovery shall be initiated so that it will be completed on or before 60 days after the Defendant produces the opinions on which it intends to rely.
4. Markman Claim Construction Hearing. A Markman claim construction hearing shall be held on March 22, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. The parties shall exchange lists of disputed claim terms on or before November 17, 2005, and proposed constructions of the disputed claim terms on or before December 8, 2005. The parties shall meet and confer regarding narrowing and reducing the number of claim construction issues on or before December 22, 2005. The parties shall submit a final joint claim chart which shall include citations to intrinsic evidence on or before January 18, 2006. The parties shall exchange opening claim construction briefs on January 27, 2006, and answering briefs on February 17, 2006. The parties shall submit two sets of the final joint claim chart and claim construction briefs to chambers, in binders, after the answering briefs are submitted.

5. Discovery. All fact discovery in these cases shall be initiated so that it will be completed on or before March 31, 2006, except as otherwise provided in paragraph 3. Expert discovery shall be initiated so that it will be completed on or before July 28, 2006. Opening expert reports of the party bearing the burden of proof shall be served on or before May 12, 2006; answering expert reports shall be served on or before June 9, 2006; and reply expert reports, if necessary, shall be served on or before June 23, 2006.

(a) Discovery Matters. Should counsel find they are unable to resolve a discovery matter, the party seeking the relief shall contact chambers at (302) 573-6470 to schedule a telephone conference. Not less than 48 hours prior to the conference, by hand delivery or facsimile at (302) 573-6472, the party seeking relief shall file with the Court a letter agenda not to exceed two pages outlining the issues in dispute. Should the Court find further briefing necessary upon conclusion of the telephone conference, the Court shall order the party seeking relief to file with the Court a TWO PAGE LETTER, exclusive of exhibits, describing the issues in contention. The responding party shall file, within five days from the date of service of the opening letter, an answering letter of no more than TWO PAGES. The party seeking relief may then file a reply letter of no more than TWO PAGES within three days from the date of service of the answering letter.

6. Confidential Information and Papers Filed under Seal. Should counsel find it necessary to apply to the Court for a protective order specifying terms and conditions for the disclosure of confidential information, they should confer and attempt to reach an agreement on a proposed form of order and submit it to the Court within 20 days from the date of entry of this Order. When filing papers under seal, counsel should deliver to the Clerk an original and two copies of the papers.

If, after making a diligent effort, the parties are unable to agree on the contents of a joint proposed protective order, then they shall follow the dispute resolution process outlined in paragraph 5(a).

7. Settlement Conference. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636, this matter is referred to the United States Magistrate for the purpose of exploring the possibility of settlement. If the parties agree that the possibility of settlement may be enhanced by such referral, the parties shall contact Magistrate Judge Thyng to schedule a settlement conference with counsel and clients.

8. Summary Judgment Motions. Prior to filing any summary judgment motion, a party must submit a letter brief to the Court seeking permission to file the motion. The opening letter brief shall be no longer than five pages and shall be filed with the Court no later than August 11, 2006. Answering letter briefs shall be no longer than five pages and filed with the Court no later than 14 days thereafter.
